

IOCA NEWS

March 1975 / Pre-Conference #1

IOCA Box 101x Newcomb Hall

Charlottesville, Virginia 22903

The IOCA NEWS is the official (?) ~ monthly publication of the Inter-collegiate Outing Club Association. It is published by the Executive Secretary, who is Keith Conover (804) 295-2050 until the elections on April 19-20. IOCA dues are $5 a year for clubs, $1.50 for individuals. Checks should be made payable to "IOCA" and sent to the Exec-sec.

This is two . . . two . . . two IOCA NEWS in two! First of all, this is the last regular IOCA NEWS I'll be putting out!!! And it is also the first of ~~two~~ two pre-conference newsletters. This means you will be getting one (1) more pre-conference newsletter, and 1 (one) post-conference report, making a total of 2 (two) more newsletters this school year. I expect (that is, hope) there will be a summer newsletter, but this presents a problem, because stuff sent to outing clubs during the summer never gets to anyone, so . . .

NOTICE!!!

NOTICE!!!

All you clubs out there . . . at your next meeting pass around a list for people to put their names and summer addresses on. Send this to me (Keith) and I'll get it to the summer newsletter editor.

IOCA MAIL LIST

Those of you who have paid your dues this year will find appended a 1975 IOCA MAIL LIST. This is a (hopefully temporary) substitute for the IOCA DIRECTORY. If you are somewhat incensed by this lack of directory, write to the Directory chairman (poison pen letters).

CLIMBING

The American ~~XX~~ Alpine Club is sponsoring an attempt on the un-attempted West Ridge of K2, the ~~x~~world's second highest mountain. The only successful attempt on the peak was the 1954 Italian expedition. The expedition costs of about $150,000 are being raised from private contributions. Anyone contributing $10 or more will receive a postcard of the mountain signed ~~from~~ by the team, sent from K2's base camp. Contributions should be sent to: American Alpine Club, 113 E 90th Street, New York, NY 10028

SEARCH AND RESCUE

If your club is interested in outdoor safety education, you might look into getting some of the folders put out by the Tacoma Mountain Rescue Unit of the Mountain Rescue Council. They will send you free samples of all if you request them, and if you want to get some to give to club members, etc., they are 1¢ each plus shipping. You will (if you've paid your dues) find a sample attached.

For those of you in the VA/WVA/MD/NC/PA area who are interested in outdoor search and rescue and outdoor safety education should write to: ASRC; 1718 N Street NW; Washington, DC 20036 and request to be put on the mailing list.

IOCAalendar (Sorry about all these changes, but I just print what I'm given)

August:

- 22-31: Western College Week--location to be decided on during May conference.

The University of New Hampshire is sponsoring an Outdoor Recreation and Conservation Conference on April 11-13. The purpose of this conference is to provide information about land use and conservation as it relates to the future of the outdoor recreation and leisure-time use of our natural resources. Right now Franconia Notch in northern New Hampshire is the focus for concern as federal and state agencies try to "modernize" highways through the Notch ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~. Many speakers will be featured, along with sessions on outdoor activities and recreational programs. Anyone interested in attending the conference should register before April 4 by contacting the Conference Department, Division of Continuing Education, Richards House, UNH, Durham NH 03824 ~~(804)~~ (803) 862 2018

1975 IOCA CONFERENCE 18-20 APRIL

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Location of Conference: Thorn Spring Park, WV. (Proceed South on U.S. 220 from Franklin WV. Turn left at Hanover Shoe Factory, about 5 miles. Park is on right.)

Activities: Thorn Spring Park is excellently located for hiking, climbing, caving, canoeing. Information will be available at conference. The annual business meeting and elections will be held Sunday morning; other workshops and conferences will be held throughout the weekend. There will be a square dance in the pavilion.

Facilities: Meals (Saturday: Breakfast, lunch, dinner; Sunday: Breakfast, lunch) will be provided in the pavilion; excellent campsites are available along Thorn Creek; plenty of hot water for showers.

Cost: $7.50 if you pre-register early (POSTMARKED before April 4); $8.00 if you pre-register after April 4; $8.50 if you pay at conference. In order to pre-register, send $5.00/person, or the whole $7.50 or $8.00 to: Madison Outing Club; Box 4207; Madison College; Harrisonburg, VA 22801. When you mail it in, please write your name and the club you are from.

C A V E R S !

Going to Virginia or West Virginia to go caving? Then memorize this number! 804-924-7166 This is the Virginia Region (National Speleological Society) Cave Rescue Communications Network (CRCN) number. Call any time of day or night; you will get the dispatch desk of the University of Virginia police. They will, in turn, locate a CRCN dispatcher. Remember, the more information you can supply, the better will go the rescue. For information about CRCN, write: Steve Gates; 600 Brandon Avenue, Apt 36; Charlottesville, Virginia 22903.

Has anyone out there heard of NEAEK? It stands for something like New England (or North East) Association for the Extermination of Kamatabodies. The Kamatabody is a flying cave creature which bites; it lives in Albany and Schohaire County New York caves. Bruce Randall has recently discovered them in Okinawa, so he/we would appreciate any information anyone has.

The Youth Conservation Corps is operating again this summer, and jobs are open to 4000 15 to 18-year olds who have an interest in working out-of-doors to conserve the Nation's natural environment. Application blanks can be obtained by writing: United States Youth Conservation Corps, P.O. Box 2975, Washington D.C. 20013.

CONSERVATION

The latest scandal in the National Park circle (since the Park Reservation System, Inc. fiasco) is centered about Yosemite Valley in Yosemite National Park. Remember the TV series 'Sierra'? It was being filmed on location there, and some strange things were happening. Universal Studios, Inc., who was filming the series, is a subsidiary of MCA Inc. Another MCA subsidiary owns 96.5 percent of the stock in the company operating concessions in the Park. The funny things include painting the Valley walls to get better lighting. Anyway, there was a Congressional investigation, which is why it isn't on any more.

A mining company from North Carolina (Sprucepine Corp.) finds wilderness areas "ideal" for dumping radioactive wastes because they "will not be traversed by more than a few hikers" who could be protected from dangerous areas by fences.

Predator Control? Humboldt Co. (California) 1974-75 Predator Control Program pays $39,210 for three trappers to kill, mostly, coyotes. It is estimated that coyotes account for less than $12,000 a year in livestock losses.

Copies of a new film on National Park proposals in Alaska may be borrowed from most National Park Service offices around the country. The film may also be obtained from: Alaska Planning Group, Room 1351, Dept. of Interior, Washington, D.C. 20240. It is a 20-minute color film.

The RIVER OF NO RETURN Wilderness Proposal (Idaho) lost something between the regional forester and the White House. More than 386,000 acres were deleted from the proposal by the President under pressure from the timber lobby.

Plans for Adirondack wilderness areas in New York State are being formulated by that state's Department of Environmental Conservation. For more information, contact: Mr. James Preston, Director of Lands and Forests, 50 Wolf Road, Albany, NY 12201.

Central Cascades Conservation Council needs help to save a 17,000-acre "Hidden Wilderness" roadless tract in Oregon's Central Cascades. To help save this area the Forest Service has "overlooked" for years, write the council at: P.O. Box 731, Salem, OR 97308.

To protect portions of the Oregon Dunes National Recreation Area as wilderness is the goal of the Mid-coast Livability Council (Florence, Oregon). Off-road vehicle users (ORV's) are fighting to open the entire area to their use.

For those who are interested in the problems created by off-road vehicles, there is a periodical publication called the "ORV Monitor". It is available from the Environmental Defense Council. As far as trying to work out differences between backpackers, etc. and ORV user rather than trying to arouse one against the other, the only positive practical effort is that of the Potomac Appalachian Trail Club. They have published a draft of guidelines for forest management with respect to recreational users, and wish to obtain comments from all user groups. Available from: PATC, 1718 N St. NW, Washington, DC 20036.

"A Code of Conduct for Those Who Visit the Wilderness" is available from the Wilderness Education Council, 1407 Jersey St., Denver, CO 80220.

You might have heard of the "Grand Canyon Enlargement Act". It seems that this act decreases the size of Grand Canyon National Park. See the latest issue of Backpacker magazine for the story.

Ever heard of the "National Hiking and Ski-Touring Association"? They will send you complete literature on all their programs for $1. NAHSTA, Box 7421, Colorado Springs, CO 80933. Also you might be interested in the "International Backpackers Association". 50¢ will get you their latest newsletter.

Backpacker magazine made a proposal a while ago to turn the White Mountains of New Hampshire into a National Park. What do you think?

No Wilderness for Mammoth Cave. In May of 1974, the National Park Service held public hearings on whether or not the surface, underground, or both should be considered for wilderness protection. The response: 34 supported the NPS no-wilderness proposal, 450 supported wilderness for both above and underground, 125 were for surface protection only, and 27 for just underground wilderness. Did the Park Service change its recommendation? of course not. All the local businesses stand to benefit by further development of the park. Unfortunately, this will probably destroy any semblance of a balanced ecological systems the cave still has. You can obtain a copy of the Mammoth Cave Wilderness Recommendation (sic) from Joseph Kulesza, Superintendent, Mammoth Cave National Park, Mammoth Cave, KY 42259. Letters of comment should be sent to Hon. Rogers C. B. Morton, Secretary of the Interior, Washington, DC 20240 with copies to your representatives and to Senator Henry M. Jackson, Chairman, Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs, Rm. 3106, New Senate Office Bldg., Washington, DC 20510

I would like to point out that all of these conservation "shorts" are from the magazines and publications of various groups involved in conservation and the outdoors. I see it as my duty as Conservation Chairman of IOCA to find and write up these articles and as Exec-Sec to publish them. It took me about four hours of work to find these and type them. That's not much time, but my only excuse for not doing it more often is that I spend many hours working on mailing lists, folding and stapling and addressing IOCA publications, and I receive little help from anyone, either in IOCA or the UVA Outing Club. Because of this, I would not be Exec-Sec again even if I was paid for ~~xxx~~ it. The purpose of this is not to make you feel sorry for me, but to feel a little guilty. If you feel guilty now, take some kind of action on the issues above. IOCA now exists as primarily as a social organization, and a somewhat exclusive one. This is not necessarily bad, but I feel IOCA has a duty to "promote fellowship and exchange of information" among collegiate outdoor clubs. This I interpret to mean that IOCA has a duty to non-IOCA Clubs to provide them with information in the hopes that this will help bring together IOCA and non-IOCA Clubs. Therefore, I have been sending the IOCA NEWS to all clubs that I know to exist, whether or not they have paid dues. However, I know personally of several clubs that get the NEWS and throw it away without reading it. Why? because IOCA social activities are foreign to them (They enjoy drunken brawls) As far as they could tell (or so I was told) IOCA does nothing else that they would be interested in. I tried to explain that IOCA does other worthwhile things, but I was hard put to find examples.

The paragraph above represents the accumulated gripes of a year of being Exec-Sec. Please don't take it to mean that I hate IOCA, or that I think that IOCA should start having drunken brawls. I think that IOCA has the right idea as far as social activities go, but we need something else in order to be able to "sell" IOCA. And don't tell me that IOCA doesn't need to sell itself. If IOCA wants to be an exclusive club, it should change its name.

My next (and last) publication will be a special PRE-CONFERENCE

IOCANs!

The Bulletin is back! Hopefully by now you have seen a copy of the Winter 1975 issue. As advertising and subscriptions roll in the Bulletin will be looking bigger and better. Our next issue (Spring 1975) will be published in April or May, and we'll be putting out Bulletins quarterly thereafter. We expect our format to expand to perhaps 20-30 pages, with some photographs. But we need your support: SUBSCRIPTIONS. So here, forthwith, are the details about subscriptions:

75¢ per person per year (4 issues)

65¢ per person per year (4 issues) if 10 or more subscriptions are received at one time.

And, as a special bonus, if subscriptions are received on or before April 19, 1975, the following discount will be in effect:

70¢ per person per year (4 issues)

55¢ per person per year (4 issues) if 10 or more subscriptions are received at one time.

We hope that subscriptions, rather than advertising, will provide the bulk of our financing, so send 'em in! Be sure your names and addresses are clearly printed, and make checks payable to the New York University Outdoor Club.

If you haven't yet seen an issue, just write for a complimentary copy. And if you have any questions, comments or suggestions, drop us a line. And finally, the Bulletin can use any articles, poems, essays, recipes, drawings, equipment reports or technical articles you might happen to have floating around, so send them in too!

Caa-ooo-wah!
